Mexico Bass Fishing in January

We have 16 of the 24 spots filled for next year's (2018) Lake Comedero trip. Most of the 12 guys who fished last year have re-signed to go again this year. I have been bass fishing in Mexico for the past 6 years and this trip produced more fish over 5 lbs than any trip ever. So, I booked 24 spots for 2018. After you read this blog from Ron Speed

Jr you will want to join us in 2018.

Ron Speed's is now sold out in 2018 for the 120 window that they fish the lake. I have only 60 days to fill our remaining 8 spots or I have to give them up to his waiting list. So, if you haven't been and want to go here are two options for you.

Join us for a bass fishing trip to Lake Comedero, 3 hours north of Mazatlan in the Sierra Madre Mountains. Lake Comedero is likely Mexico's most famous lake for big bass. We are offering two different trips to Comedero in early 2017: a 4 day trip and a 3 day trip. For many, 3 days is plenty of fishing, while others prefer 4 days.

We leave for the 4 day trip January 29, and will fish January 30th, 31st, Feb 1st and Feb 2nd. The cost is $1995, and a 50% deposit is due to hold your spot.

Fishing for the 3 day trip will be February 3rd, 4th, and 5th. The cost of the 3 day trip is $1795, and a 50% deposit is required to hold your spot.

We will be fishing during the full moon and during the most prime month. Likely the single most wanted week of the year. We have the entire lodge reserved, which holds 12 spots. Our 2017 trip sold out in 3 months and had a waiting list of 8 people.
