Peacock Bass Fish the Amazon! with PWF & Ron Speed Adventures

Dear Steve,

Don't be that guy!

Big houses, fancy cars and other possessions bring happiness for only a few and usually for a short period of time. When the newness or the quest to acquire subsides we look for the next new thing or challenge. For many this a cycle that continues for most of our lives. Reality is that, life experiences bring more to our lives than things do. For that reason, I want to experience a personal bucket list item and I would like our members to join me.

Let's go Peacock Bass Fishing in the Amazon! Don't be the guy wishing you had gone...Go. Don't be the guy who said I should go...but does not go. Don't be the guy who says I don't have the time, I'm too busy. Don't be that guy!

We have partnered with Ron Speed Adventures for a bucket list trip of a lifetime.

As of today we have most any week of the entire 2014-2015 season to choose from. Fishing starts in September and ends in March. You want to fish in the Amazon as the water is falling, not rising. After several phone conversations with Ron we have decided to book a week in mid to late October allowing us to fish a part of the Amazon that few other outfitters fish. During the months of September and October Ron Speed's does not fish the Rio Negro but fishes 2 other rivers (and has since 1992), where the competition does not go. Everyone fishes the tributaries of the Rio Negro and if we move the trip to November through March we too will fish the legendary Rio Negro.

No date is in stone. And if we fish in November through March we will fish the Rio Negro. We leave on a Friday and return 10 days later the following Sunday. I am leaning towards the following two dates, October 17th to 26th or October 24th to November 2nd.

The cost is $4595 which includes everything but airfare (approx $1000) and tips (approx $200). All in cost is approx $6000. If we go after November 1st, the price is $4995. I am choosing October not because of the $500 discounted price, but because after speaking to Ron, it sounds like the fishing is better. We need 15 members to join me. Don't worry about needing a buddy or friend to join you. There will be plenty of PWF members to keep you company. Please call or e-mail me today. You don't have to commit today, just let me know you have some interest.

Sincerely,

Steve Alexander
